

Fast-Track Coaching for LEADERS WHO COACH Workshop

for Principals, Assistant Principals,
Instructional Leaders, and Department Chairs

Transform Your Leadership through Coaching.

Great change starts with great conversations. In this workshop, you'll learn how to lead through partnership, communicate in ways that reduce resistance, and use coaching conversations to support meaningful growth. Explore the Impact Cycle, practice evidence-based strategies, and discover how to make coaching a natural, sustainable part of your leadership.

Key Takeaways

- Learn how to lead through partnership so coaching feels collaborative and builds trust.
- Strengthen communication skills—questioning, listening, and dialogue—that spark meaningful growth.
- Use the Impact Cycle to get clarity, set goals with teachers, and guide growth step by step.
- Gather and use simple, practical data to understand what's happening and inform next steps.
- Leave with evidence-based strategies, an instructional playbook framework, and a plan you can put into practice immediately.
